SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 19. EUESCRIPTION TO THE EVENING EDITION,

THE ESSENCE OF JOLLITY.

PUT UP IN LITTLE PHIALS FOR THE PUB-LIC'S BENEFIT.

Fitted to Become a Lawyer.

Lawyer-And so you really think, Bobby, o becoming a lawyer when you grow up? Bobby-Yes, sir; my Uncle James thinks ought to be a lawyer.

Does he, indeed? And why does your Un-cle James think so—because you are bright and emart?"
'No, sir: because I ask so many fool ques-

Willie's Idea of Culture.

[From the Chicago Tribuna.]
Bobby---Who is that man in there talking with father?
Willie-I don't know. He's one of these cultured men, though. I heard him say "idear."

High Ideas.

Pater Familias (interrupting) - You girls should fix your minds on something higher than dress.

Mary Ann—That is what we have, pa. We have got our minds fixed now on a couple of lovely high hats down at Mrs. Feather's millin-Woman's Sphere. [From the Lincoln Journal.]
Indolent Husband-How true it is, Mary, that the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world.

Weary Wife—Yes, and it's the hand that splits the wood and carries in the coal and draws the Water.
Which is too frequently true.

A Gloomy Outlook.

(From the Epoch.)
Aunt Lucy (a caller)—Yo ain't 'pearin' quite as peart as usual dis mawnin', Aunt Dinah.

Aunt Dinah—I knows I ain't, Aunt Lucy: I Aunt Dinah—I knows I ain't, Aunt Lucy; I knows I ain't. I advertised fur a girl to do gen-ral housework dis mawnin' in de papah an' one came, bout harf an hour ago. She sayed dat she didn't know it was a brack woman what wanted help. I tells you, Aunt Lucy, when it comes to shifless white girl not bein' willin' to work fur a cullud lady, it's bout time fur de cullud folks to take to de hotels.

[From the Chicago Tribune,]
"From what you have told me of his interviews with you," said the lawyer, doubtfully. "I am afraid it will be hard work to make a "I am afraid it will be hard work to make a case of breach of promise against him. Have you something in the nature of documentary evidence? Can you produce any letters in which he addresses you in endearing terms, or speaks of himself as bound to you in any way?" "I can," replied the elderly maiden lady, triumphantly. "Here is a note from him beginning 'Dear Miss Lickladder,' and signed 'Yours truly, Van De Karr,' Isn't that strong amough."

gone.

Jerry (feeling leisurely in his pocket)-Well, no matter. It can't go long enough to get far

A SAFE, sure cure for coughs and colds. Adamson's September, four year BOTANIC BALSAM, KINEMAN, USth st. and 4th ave. ... born two weeks ago."

NEWS IN SPORTING CIRCLES.

AN ALBANY TRAINER FINDING NEW SPEED-ERS IN NEW YORK.

Record of the Bookmakers' Billiard Tournament-Cross Country Runs in Prospect for the Union, the Manhattans and the Pastimes-The Metropolitan Rowing Club to Give an Exhibition.

A. P. McDonald, the well-known Albany trainer of trotters, was in town yesterday, giving three of H. R. Murray's green ones a trial, to see if they possess speed enough to warrant training. The flyers impressed Mr. McDonald favorably.

The sixth game of the bookmakers' billiard tournament was played last evening between Heineman and Reeves. The games as played

First Game—Davis (150) heat.
Heineman (150)
Second Game—Johnson (150) best.
Reeves (170)
Third Game—Corbett (102) best.
Heineman.
Fourth Game—Reeves best Fifth Game—Johnson beat..... Corbett. Sixth Game—Heineman beat.... Reeves To-night Johnson and Davis will cross

The Amateur Athletic Union's branch of the National Cross-Country Association witl have an invitation cross-country run Jan. 24, starting from the Pastime's grounds at Sixtysixth street and East River.

The Manhattan Athletic Club will give at invitation cross-country run to-morrow, open

Jim Sullivan, one of the Union's Games Committee, has been making desperate efforts to have the representatives of the press properly cared for at the Union's games to day. Jim is a hustler and a power in ath

The Pastime Athletic Club will give its annual cross-country run Feb. 22 over the Fort George course, and will hold games June 8. Its indoor contests takes place next

The Hornbacher Athletic Club gives an exhibition to-night at 76 East Fourth street.

The Metropolitan Rowing Club's fifth annual athletic exhibition will be held to-night in Parepa Hall, at Third avenue and Eightyaxth street, beginning at 8 r. M.

The entries for Al Frey's continuous pool tournament close with John D. O'Conner, 860 Brondway, Jan. 26.—The entrance fee is $50, and $1,000 will be divided among the leading contestants. First man will receive $400 and the net gate receipts: second, $300. ing contestants. First man will receive 7400 and the net gate receipts: second, $300; third, $200 and fourth, $100. At Frey has entered himself, so the rest will probably work for second, third and fourth places. There are also entered Malone, King, Kuntsch, of Syracuse; Erickson, the Swede, of California; Manning, Clearwater, Powers and Stewart, of Port Jervis.

The Games Committee of the N. four A's., met last night in the M. A. C. house and made some arrangements for the Association's coming games. The prizes will probably be discount.

Gus Lambert, the Canadian champion, and Joe Denning, the Brooklyn heavy-weight, engaged in a glove contest last night in the Grand Street Theatre, Williamsburg. Gus had the best of it, and in the third round Denning stopped, saying that he was in no condition to keep it up. There were to have esting and Successful.

BROOKLYN'S THREE DAYS' WALK.

is working hard to make the race a good one.

and his name is sufficient to guarantee that it will be on the level.

Gus Guerrero and Peter Hegelman are the sprinters of the contest, and the pace they will set will make the others hop along lively. Old Sport Campana will repeat his antics and Denver Smith, a cowboy, will whoop things up for Colorado. Sam Day (Oh, Mary), Dan Herty, Pete Golden, Archie Sinclair, Frank Hart and Alfred Elson will also start.

WORLDLINGS.

Frank R. Stockton, the author, is said to think out many of the situations in his novels while reclining in a hammock. He writes slowly, sometimes spending several days in putting 200

Fewer passenger conductors have been discharged from the Missouri Pacific road, it is said, than from any other railroad in the West. Many of the conductors in the road's service have been with it from the start. The people of Portland, Ore., are taking steps o induce the Legislature to establish a vast public park in the Cascade Mountains. It is designed to have the park include Mount Hood and Crater Lake, which would make it a formidable rival of Yellowstone Park.

A Washington correspondent writes: "If any married man is childless and wants a family, he should go to the North Pole, be lost for three years, rescued just a few hours before death from starvation and be brought botto a skeleton. Gen. Greely reached Portland, Me., in September, four years ago. His third son was

"CROOKEDNESS" AMONG POLO PLAYERS. Two Members of the Meriden Team "Black-

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Jan. 19.-At a recent meeting of the directors of the Interstate Polo League held in Meriden H. C. Dunning and Paul Lampkin, members of the Meriden polo team, were blacklisted for selling a game between the Meridens and New Havens last Tuesday night.

A syndicate of New Haven gamblers visited A syndicate of New Haven gambiers visited.
Meriden Tuesday afternoon and paid Dunning and Lampkin $75 each to drop the game to New Haven. The gamblers then bet heavily on the New Havens, in many instances offering odds, and won about $1,500 on the years!

on the result.

The suspicions of the management of the The suspicions of the management of the Meriden team was aroused, and an investigation followed, which resulted in establishing the guilt of these two players. This is the first instance where polo players in New England have been placed on the black list for "crookedness." A further investigation is being made, and t is said that others in this League are 'quaking in their boots." It is reported that one or two of the Bridgeport players are implicated, and will shortly be exposed. The affair has created consider-able excitement through the cities in this State, as polo is the craze about here.

SUICIDE IN HIS CELL.

Forger Fries Hanged Himself While His Juliers Slept.

DEFECTAL TO THE EVENING WORLD I CAMDEN, N. J., Jan. 19. Charles Fries, the crook with a long record of crimes who was locked up in the Woodbury mil Jan. 4 charged with extensive forgeries, was found dead in his cell this morning by his keepers. He had committed suicide during the night y hanging bimself to a bar in the window of be iclothing.

Fries is said to come of a respectable family and leaves a wife who was devotedly attached

ARRESTED FOR PERJURY.

Mr. Keller Would Not Incriminate Himself in the Fisher Divorce Suit.

William Keller was arrested by Officer Shields, of the Essex Market Court squad, this morning on a charge of perjury, and was arraigned at Essex Market Court, where John Fisher, of 78 Bowery, appeared as complain-

Fisher, of 78 Bowery, appeared as complain-ant against him.

Fisher, through his counsel, John C. Fraser, brought an action for absolute di-vorce against his wife, Amelia. He got his divorce, and alleges that Keller committed perjury before Referee William Sinclair, in swearing that he was not intimate with Mrs. Fisher. He was held for examination.

FIENDISH CRIME OF A BOY.

Chris Berger Kills Mrs. Hayden with a INPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 19 .- A brutal murder was committed in Riga, near this city, last might, on a farm owned by Myron Davis. Chris Berger, a boy, aged sixteen, killed Mrs. Mary Hayden, a woman sixty years of age, by hitting her on the head with a club.

The two were left alone in the house during the evening, and the woman's body was discovered when Davis returned home. Robbery is supposed to have been the motive of the crime. The murderer disappeared after plundering the house. The police are now searching for him.

CHAIRMAN THOMAS F. GILROY Now the Head of Tammany Hall's Committee on Organization. Deputy Sheriff Thomas F. Gilroy has been selected as Chairman of the Tammany Hall Committee on Organization.

For many years Mr. Gilroy has worked faithfully and well for the advancement of Tammany's interests and the selection is a fitting recognition of his great executive ability.

Mr. Gilroy was secretary of the Committee

The seventy-two-hour go-as-you-please race to take place in the City of Churches next week promises to be a most interesting contest. Manager Frank M. Sievin, who is a nephew of ex-Register Slevin, of this city, in the committee's organization last night.

Mr. Gilroy was secretary of the Committee on Organization when the late John Kelly presided over its deliberations and incontinently bounced Edward Kearney, ex-Register Docharty, ex-Senator Ecclesine and many other ex-County Democrats, who participated in the committee's organization last

TRIED TO MURDER HIS MOTHER.

Mrs. Wacker Knocked Down, Beaten and Shot At for Refusing Her Son Money.

Mrs. Sophia Wacker, a gray-haired and kindly-looking widow, living at 139 Hester street, charged her twenty-seven-year-old street, charged her twenty-seven-year-old sen. Louis, in Essex Market Court this morning with brutal and unprovoked assault. She said the voung man eame in a drunken condition to her room last night and demanded money. When she relused he knocked her down and beat her. She fled, and as she ran from the room he fired a shot after her, which missed.

Justice O'Reilly sent the unfilial son to the island for six months. is and for six months.

Plan of the Anti-Raymondites. The plan of campaign of the kickers against the rule of Republican Boss Frank Raymond, in the Twenty-third Assembly District, is a clever

Fight with a Lunatic in a Bank.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
PATERSON, N.J., Jan. 19.—John Bense walked nto the First National Bank this morning and startled the clerks by announcing that he was President of the institution and demanding salary for the past eight months. He insisted on his demand and a thesic ensued, ending in Hense being arrested and taken before Recorder Greaves, who committed him as a lumatic.

A FELLOW OF INFINITE JEST.

ECCENTRICITIES OF MONTREAL'S NOTED CHARACTER, "JOE BEEF."

Charles McKiernan Was a Philanthropist in His Way, and, Though Reviled in Life, His Faneral Was Attended by the Rich and the Poor, the Righteons and the Wicked-A Strange Life.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. !

MONTHEAL, Jan. 19. - Charles McKiernan, familiarly known as "Joe Beef," one of the most celebrated characters in Eastern Canada known to Americans who have ever been shown the sights of Montreal, friend of the poor, the tramps and the bummers, and a man who did much good in his own peculiar way, was buried here yesterday. He died rather suddenly on Tuesday. His obsequies were attended by thousands of people; hundreds who, when he was alive, experienced a cold chill when the name of "Joe Beef," or his low groggery was mentioned, yesterday fought like madmen to obtain a peep at his dead form, or listen to the service delivered by Rev. Rural Dean Lindsay, who, as paster of St. Thomas Church, reviled Joe in life and enlogized him in death.

No Bowery dive or sailors' boozing-ken could approach Beet's dive on Common street here for vileness and repulsiveness. Yet yesterday ladies in saturs, silks and furs; gentlemen in broadcloth and worth millions. and the most prominent merchants in the city vied and pushed and scrambled with fum-soaked, ragged and dirty tramps, bloated, coarse, foul-mouthed bummers and desperate thieves for an entrance to the lamented Joe's palace of iniquity and to the lamented Joe's palace of iniquity and marched in so enin procession, the lowly followed by the high-born, the thief and outcast elbow to elbow with preacher and Christian passed the dead man's bier, some to curiously peer a second at the form of the man they had sneered at; others to drop a tear for him who had, perhaps, many times saved them from starvation or furnished them warmth and a bed when the bands of all other men were turned against them. turned against them.

'Joe Beef" had a curious history. When a boy he was sont to the School of Gunnery in Woolwich, England. He was drafted into the Royal Artillery and served through the Grimean war, being raised to the rank of sergeant. When others failed to secure supplies Joe would get a plentiful supply of beef, and from this he received the name of Joe Beef." He came to Canada with the Royal Artil-

He came to Canada with the Royal Artillery in 1864. In 1870 he opened the place wherein he died. In 1877, the year that the great Lachine Canal strike occurred, Joe took the part of the strikers, and distributed food to them. During three days he gave away over 3,000 loaves of bread, 700 galions of soup, and 50 carcasses of beef. He also sent delegates to Ottawa, who obtained for the strikers the relief they demanded. Two years later the great Hochelaga Cotton Mills strike broke out. Joe advised the people to hold out, as their claims advised the people to hold out, as their claims were just, and agreed to feed them, which he did, and the strikers won.

A hungry, penni ess and homeless man never went to Joe's place and came away without a meal or was refused a night's lodgness is a roomy, old fashioned place. On the same floor he kept his men gerie, the most peculiar of Joe's many eccentricities. It at present comprises four black bears, ten monkeys, a young alligator, three raccoons monkeys, a young alligator, three raccoons and a percupine.

His love for animals almost cost Joe his life. In June last his son went to look at the bears; he lost his balance and fell among the savage Bruins, which attacked the child. The bears charged at Joe and knocked him down and bit him severely. After a desperate fight in saving his boy, the child was not much injured but Joe was laid up for weeks. When the Salvation Army first came to When the Salvation Army first came to Montreal be gave them $1 each Sunday for singing opposite his canteen, as he quaintly remarked, "to save the bunis he had made." He employed an old man named Yankee Williams to go around the streets with an old trunk, on which was painted "Hotel de Joe Beef."

Beef."

A small illustrated paper, which he gave to his customers, had on the first page a picture of himself, and over his head the following:

"He cares not for the Pope, priest, barson or King William, of Boyne! All Joe wants is the coin. He trusts in God in Summer time to keep him from all harm, and when he sees the frost and snow poor old Joe trusts to the mighty dollar and good old maplewood to keep him warm, for of churches, chapels, ranters, preachers and such stuff Montreal has got enough."

When his first wife died, sixteen years ago, Joe gave her a military funeral. A brass band headed the cortege and Joe followed the hearse with several hundreds of his beculiar customers following him.

After the body was deposited in the grave and as the procession was coming out through the cemetery he had the band play." The Girl I left Behind Me," and all the way to his house lively airs were the rule.

He left no will and died comparatively poor, having given away almost all he carned. He has a brother, a Jesuit priest. His second wife and six children lived over his place in apartments sumptuously fitted up, and the children are all receiving fine educations.

The body was buried in Mount Royal Cemetry.

Few sightseers in Montreal have failed to A small illustrated paper, which he gave to Few sightseers in Montreal have failed to visit "Joe Beef's." His fame as a character has spread all over the United States, and his jolly, happy manners never failed to please Utterly deficient in morals; witty, charitable and even brave, "Joe Beef's" fame will long be remembered in Canada.

Alexander Sweeney, twice tried for complicity in the murder of Watchman John Hannon at the foot of East Thirty-eighth street on April 7. 1885, is a free man to-day, the jury in Judge Gildersleeve's Court having brought in a verdict of not guilty last evening. Sweeney had been in jail nearly four years.

READ

UNION AGAINST UNION.

Their Rivalry Loses Carpenter Graham His Job or Harrison's Theatre.

Carpenter Samuel Graham corrects the statement that the Building Trades Section had instructed the Theatrical Progressive Union to reinstate him, the impression being conveyed that he had been expelled from that body while employed at Harrigan's Theatre. Mr. Graham says he never was a member of the Theatrical Progressive Union, but is a member of Lodge No. 1, of the United Order of American Carpenters, and was employed in Harrigan's Theatre at night, contrary to the wishes of the Theatrical Progressive Union. which did not recognize his card, so he was discharged.

Notwithstanding the action of the Building

Trades' Section instructing the Theatrical Progressive Union to reinstate Mr. Graham in his position at the theatre pending a hearing, the latter body has not done so.

A committee of the Building Trades' Section considered the matter last night, and will

In the Field of Labor.

The Central Labor Union meets to-morrow afternoon.

On Tue-day evening the Mystic Tie Association of Sash and Blind Makers will give its third annual bail in Clarendon Hall.

The Food Producers Section will give a ball in Clarendon Hall Jan. 31 for the benefit of the brewery working locked out last April who have not been able to find employment.

Members of the Uphoisterers Union employed in Bartholomew's slop, in East Eighth street, struck against a reduction of wages, and the boss gave in siter a talk with the Committee.

The silk rubbon weavers and other silk boss gave in after a talk with the Committee.

The silk ribbon weavers and other silk weavers in the city and Hudson County, N. J., have been asked by the Furniture Workers Section not to work on the "seab" looms brought from Philadelphia and Paterson.

Forty-five union men employed in Lindeman's piano manufactory struck against a reduction of wayes, and their employer yielded, but it is said that he began to discharge the men one after another, and now all hands have gone out again.

again.

The Grievance Committee of the Furniture Workers' Section has decided that all members of the United Piano-Makers' orcanization who are delinquents in other unions must pay up or their cases will be brought before the Central Labor Union.

The Arbitration Committee of the Building Trades Section, will inquire into a complaint made by the Electric Housewiremen's Union, that non-union men are employed in putting electric wires on a steamship at the foot of East Forty-sixth street.

A ROBBERY AT DINNER-TIME.

The Just Revealed Operations of Daring Thieves in West Forty-eighth Street. An extensive and daring robbery, which has been concealed by the police, came to light to-day through this advertisement, which appeared in this morning's World:

S50 REWARD for the return of gold watch taken from 107 West 48th st. Jan. 7; a keepsake of deceased som; no questions asked. 1. S. Cooley, 313 Broodway.

daughter and three grandchildren.

It is believed that one thief entered the house wearing rubbet overshoes, while the others waited in the street with a wagon of some description, probably appearing as

FACTORY DEATH-TRAPS.

Inspector McKay Sees Col. Fellows in Re-

George A. McKay, Deputy Factory Inspector of the Second District, has visited District-Attorney Fellows in relation to the recent fatal fire in Fifth street and requested him to prosecute the owners of the premises for violation of the factory laws in not having for violation of the factory laws in not having fire-escapes on the buildings.

Mr. McKay will attend the inquest on Tucsday next and give some facts regarding his action in the matter.

It is very likely that some important facts will be brought out and the subject of better protection for employees will thereby be prominently agitated and reforms set on foot.

Rheumatism According to recent investigations is caused by excess of dations of the disease, pains and aches in the back and shoulders, and in the joints at the knees, ankles, hips and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive and permanent are for rheamatism. This medicine, by its puritying and vitalizing action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and strengthens the whole body. "I was said up for six months with rheumatism, and one of my neighbors told me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. When I had used half a bottle I felt better, and after taking two bottles I think I was entirely cured, as I have

Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists. $1 ; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. ROOD & CO., Apothocaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 DOSES ONE DOLLAR

EddiegBrown, 331 E. 11th st. Class 2—Lizzie Triff-teret, 445 E. 9th st., Charles Marx, 343 E. 9th st., Class 3: Selma Gras, 107 E. 8th st., George Muser, 500 E. 9th st. Class 4—Mamie Dahl, 105 E. 8th st., 500 E. 9th st. Class 4—Mamie Dahl, 105 E. 8th st., 4 Mired Briggs, 317 E. 9th st., Class 5—Feresa Wolff, 251 E. 10th st. Class 6—Aug. Berlinghoff, 108 E. 7th st., Jacob Messner, 439 9th st., Class 7—Emma Har-ik, 391 E. 10th st. No. 23.—Class 1—William Class, 288 St. Nicholas ave., Margie Hendershot, 256 W. 124th st., Class 2— George Hahner, 129 W. 124th st., Mand O'Brien, 243 W. 124th st., Class 3—Sylvia Fabry, 11677 7th ave., 124 W. 124th st., Class 3—Sylvia Fabry, 11677 7th ave., No. 31.—Class 1—Jacob Weiss, 15 ave. R. Mary Pre-valsky, 77 Soffolk st. Class 2—Joseph Wohlberg, 244 20 st., Faunie Bernston, 42 Clinton st. Class 3— Freddie Heims, 297 4th st., Ale Kloin, 383 Honston st., Lena Berliner, 236 2set, Class 2—Ellen Reemedy, 181 st. 4. Class 3—Mary Bruggenheim, 181st st., Albert No. 37.—Ulass 1—Arthur Höhler, 245 Broadway, Class 2—Bertha Colem, 40 Dey st. Cuass 3—Marie Feidstein, 277 Greenwich st., Lizzie Erdhardt, 345 Greenwich st.

At 6.30 o'clock on the evening of Jan. 7, James S. Cooley, a retired Maiden lane jew-back, was dining at his residence with his family, consisting of his wife, grown son and daughter and three grandchildren.

Grammar School Primary Departments.

Emma Jachus, 46 Rose st. Class 2-Jalia Uncklebach, 96 Gold st.; Andrew Hillary, 21 Batavia st.

No. 4.—Class 1—Mary Primary Departments.

No. 4.—Class 1—Mary Primary Departments.

Emma Jachus, 46 Rose st. Class 2—Jalia Uncklebach, 96 Gold st.; Andrew Hillary, 21 Batavia st.

No. 4.—Class 1—Mary Primary Departments.

To Aller School Primary Departments.

To Aller family, consisting of his wife, grown son and daughter and three grandchildren.

Two naid servants were waiting on the table. Towards the end of the meal another servant, who had been sewing on the top floor, came running into the room and announced that thieves were in the house.

The family immediately rushed out and made a thorough search, but the robbers had escaped.

Mr. Coolev's sleeping apartments had been entered, and $1.000 worth of jewelry had been stolen. The wardrobe, which stood open, had been cleaned of everything. It contained a dozen fine suits of clothes, beheavy and light overcosts.

The drawers of the bureau had been forced with a jimmy. The lock was uninjured.

The thieves had entered at the basement door, picking the lock with a wire.

The police say the job was done by old cracksmen and that the house and the habits of the family had probably been studied thoroughly for several weeks before the robbery was committed.

It is believed that one thief entered the house wearing rubbez overshoes, while the others waited in the street with a wagon of some description, probably appearing as a

d. 29. —Class 2 —Sadie McGowan, 4d Greenwich st. Higgins, 145. Washington st. Class 3 —Edward emann, 100 West st., Ettie Schreger, 8 Green

C.—Edward Ante, 498 8th ave.; Mary Schnalke, 320 W.
40th st.
No. 33.—Class A.—John Scheele, 565 W. 29th st.;
No. 33.—Class A.—John Scheele, 565 W. 29th st.;
No. 33.—Class A.—John Scheele, 565 W. 29th st.;
Withelmina S. Schienter, 315 11th ave.; Henry G.
Busch, 284 10th ave.; Edwar A. Crandall, 407 W. 29th
st. Class B.—Elizabeth Parker, 457 W. 31th st.; Harriet B. Rigney, 434 W. 27th st. Class G.—Phoebe Turner, 400 W. 21th st. Class C.—Edward Costelly, 533
W. 29th st.; Heary Henzman, 257 9th ave.
No. 35.—Class A.—deorge O Comor, 427 W. 13th st.
Class B.—Harry Southwick, Jeroma ave. Class G.—Albert
Calvert, 225 W. 15th st. Class D.—Albert Kirk, 185
Macdongal st.
Macdongal st.
Macdongal st.
Machen M. 1545 Park ave. Amy Schwah, 150
E. 94th st. Class S. Millie Brunner, 1439 Lectus, 150
E. 94th st. Class S. Millie Brunner, 1439 Lectus, 150
E. 94th st. Class S. Millie Brunner, 1439 Lectus, 151
E. 85th st. Florence Branard, 111 E. 92d st.;
Katle Roth, 1038 3d ave. 1isabel Dumber, 1936 Ave.
A. Florence Gray, 15d4 Park ave.; Katle Nicholsburg, 1486 3d ave.
180, 39.—Class A.—Harry M. Thompson, 130 E. 124th
No. 39.—Class A.—Harry M. Thompson, 130 E. 124th

Breshwich at. No. 51.—Class A.—Mamie Clover, 532 W. 47th st. Class B.—May McEvoy, 450 W. 31st at.; Ireno Hine

Names of Children Who Rank Highest in Their Classes.

Names of Children Who Rank Highest in Their Classes.

This Week's Record of Primary School Pupils.

This Week's Record of Primary School Pupils.

This Week's Record of Primary School Pupils.

The Reward of Industry.

Diligent Boys and Girls Once More Reap the Reward of Industry.

The highest scholars in the primary schools and departments mader the care of the Board of Education—those who by ability, punituality and industry have won the foremost place in their classes—once more find their names in Time Eveniso Woods in the belief, born of past experience, that their publication stimulates all the little own of the primary schools in the belief, born of past experience, that their publication stimulates all the little own of the primary schools in the belief, born of past experience, that their publication stimulates all the little own of the primary schools in the belief, born of past experience, that their publication stimulates all the little own of the primary schools in the belief, born of past experience, that their publication stimulates all the little own of the primary schools in the belief, born of past experience, that their publication stimulates all the little own of the little school in the belief, born of past experience, that their publication stimulates all the lattle owns strive for a place in the key of the principals and teachers in the value of the little school in the belief, born of past experience, that their publication stimulates all the lattle owns strive for a place in the key of the lattle school in the belief, born of past experience, that their publication stimulates all the lattle owns strive for a place in the lattle school in the lattle

FOR WINTER EVENINGS.

A Few New Shadow Pictures to Throw Upon the Wall.

AN ALLEGED EAGLE.

THE CENUINE OHANN HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT

Is the Best NUTRITIVE TONIO mpaired Digestion, Dyspepsia, Mothers while Nursing, for the Weak and Debilitated. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

DEAM SIRS I have used Johann Hoff's Mail Extract for the past five years in my private practice, and have found it TO BE THE BENT HEALTH-RESTORICS IN THE EXAMPLE AND THE HOUSE OF THE EXAMPLE OF THE CONTRACT BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.
The genuine has the signatures of "Johann Hoff" and "Morits Eisner" on the neck of every bottle.

EISNER & MENDELSON CO., 6 BARCLAY ST., NEW YORK.

Another Entire Page

THE VEILED PROPHETESS.

NELLIE BLY Has Her Fortune Told by a Mysterious Witch. TO FOLLOW MRS. POTTER.

Brooklyn Amateur Actresses Who Will Join the Professional Ranks.

PASSIONS OUT OF SEASON. MRS. SHERWOOD Writes of Coquettish Belles of Sixty Years

Columns of Miscellany and Special

SUNDAY

 $\mathbf{WORLD}$

Sunday

WEIRD TALES OF MANY CHOSTS. Restless Spooks Who Still Haunt Their Former Stamping Grounds.

FIVE NEW SCHOOL-HOUSES.

They Are All Models of Architectural Beauty and Convenience.

DOMINICK MURRAY'S VERSION.

The Veteran Actor Tells a Good Story About Clark Russell's Last

Articles by Well-Known Writers.

Original Wit and Humor. Sunday

Read

lost and Ame self-

ead Sunday

Who Try to be Girls Again.